

international center for
TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE

CONFERENCE REPORT SERIES

LESSONS IN TRUTH-SEEKING: INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES INFORMING UNITED STATES INITIATIVES

Written by Lisa Magarrell and Blaz Gutierrez for the International Center for Transitional Justice

September 2006

Table of Contents

Executive Summary	1
I. Introduction	3
A. About the ICTJ	3
B. About the MTC	4
C. About the BCC	4
D. Meeting objectives and participants	5
E. Content of the report	6
II. The International cases	7
A. Peru	7
B. South Africa	9
C. Northern Ireland: the Ardoyne community	10
III. The United States	12
A. Local and grassroots initiatives: Greensboro	12
1. Background	13
2. Lessons and Observations	14
B. State-sponsored historical investigations: Wilmington and Rosewood	18
C. Emerging and ongoing truth-seeking: examples from the U.S. South	21
1. Abbeville, SC	21
2. Moore's Ford, GA	21
3. The State of Mississippi	22
4. New Orleans, LA	23
D. The Bigger Picture: Lynchings in Maryland and other cases of mass abuse in the U.S.	25
IV. Truth commissions in the U.S.: International and local lessons
A. Grassroots efforts or government sponsorship, local and national dimensions	25
B. Historical justice and remedies: how far back should truth-seeking reach?	29
C. Truth-seeking and inclusion, participation, democracy	30
V. Conclusions	32
Annexes	34